

Alessandro Ristori

Alessandro Ristori was born in 1979 in Faenza. His personal musical direction and his passion for rock'n'roll and 50s Crooners starts during childhood. Begins as a soloist, then starts his own band "The Portofinos" and play hundreds of shows together.

In June 2007 he produces and releases "Ciao vi dirò".

Through the years Alessandro Ristori sings and works with a lot of artists and performs in several RAI and MEDIASET tv shows.

Since 2006 Alessandro Ristori & The Portofinos play as GRAND HOTEL di Rimini resident band.

From 2007 until 2011, signs with Rolando D'Angeli and Don't Worry Record Company. In Rome he is awarded with "Premio Europa Oscar Giovani 2007" and in July 2008 wins 3rd prize at "New Wave Stars", Russian international music festival taking place in Jurmala, Latvia and he is guest in Russian Tv show Pesnya Goda.

In 2009 performs at the maltese tv ("Bla Agenda", "Celebrity Sunday").

In October 2008 a new single is released: "Dovevo fare il deejay" (Don't Worry Records), the single includes "Impazzivo per te", a big success by Adriano Celentano, elegantly rearranged, it sounds more minimal.

Both songs can be found inside the album "Alessandro Ristori, Faenza-Memphis Andata/Ritorno", released in April 2009.

In 2010 he presents a live DVD "Rock'n'roll is back" recorded on January 10th at "Fuori Orario" in Reggio Emilia, including an international duet with Canadian pop singer Jacynthe and an interview with the music reviewer Dario Salvatori.

At this time Alessandro Ristori & The Portofinos are on tour in Italy and abroad (Russia, Great Britain, France) performing at exclusive music clubs such as Montecarlo's MOODS and SPORTING CLUB.

A new single out in June 2011; "Giorni d'estate" (CD and Vinyl) is dedicated to Italian sweet summers.

Alessandro Ristori "CHRISTMAS ALBUM" was released on winter 2011, it numbers, among traditional songs and carols, 4 brand new songs.

"IBRIDO" is the title of Alessandro Ristori & the Portofinos new album (BUMBUM DISCHI label), outbound in Spring 2012, it's a live show recording, plus 2 previously unreleased studio tracks "SENTIMENTO" and "LA DONNA UOMO".

